

THE ENERGY OF WAR ABROAD AND PEACE AND PROSPERITY AT HOME MAKE AN EFFECTIVE CONTRAST

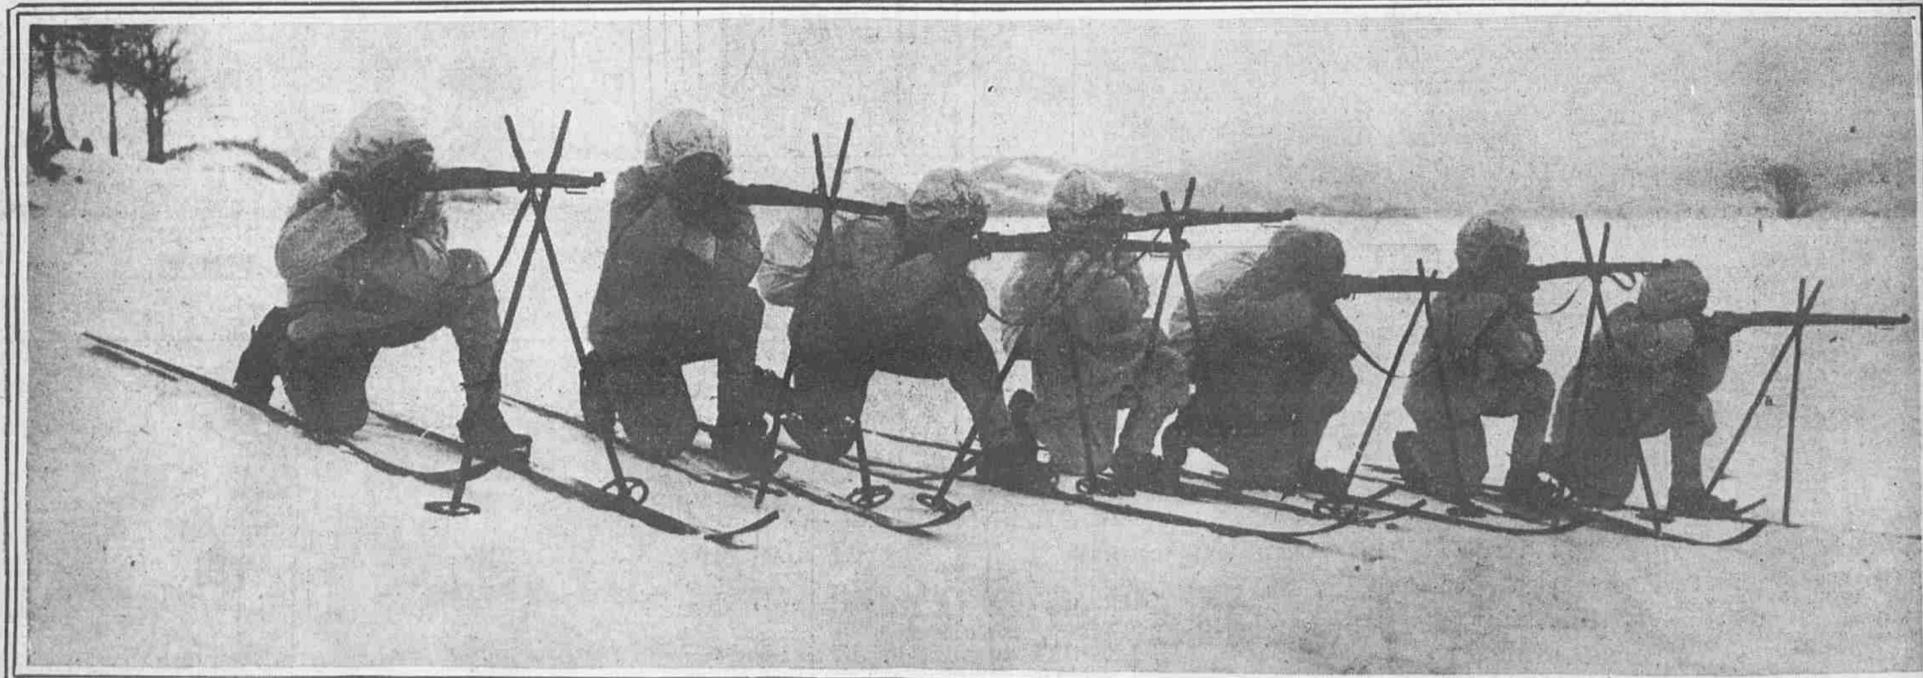

GERMAN AMMUNITION WAGONS APPROACHING THE FIRING LINE IN GALICIA
The importance of the ammunition transport in modern warfare cannot be overestimated. In this picture there is a sharp study in methods where the heavy truck is seen swiftly overhauling the slower-moving schooner-wagons.

HERBERT J. TILY

He is general manager for Strawbridge & Clothier, and was recently elected first vice president of the National Association of Corporation Schools. In the normal order of events he should succeed to the presidency next year.

THE GERMAN ARMY EXHAUSTS EVERY MEANS IN ITS TERRIBLE STRUGGLE AGAINST ITS ALLIED ENEMIES. HERE IT EMPLOYS SKIS
One of the most remarkable features of the German method of warfare is its preparedness. But beyond that their capacity for adapting everything to their own purposes is helping the Kaiser's men in their agonizing battle.

TWO VIEWS OF TIMBER CREEK, THE DELAWARE'S TRIBUTARY, BELOVED OF PIKE FISHERS AND SUMMER CAMPERS
The views are before and after the storm of last Sunday. Both show the strange lights which played over Timber Creek. It is said that pike will be biting soon and fishermen will presently be poking the noses of their boats around the lily pads of the upper-creek. Even without the added pleasure of fishing, the creek is a pleasant spot to spend a day, or even a week.
